

Your Electronic Turnkey Solutions

Quebec, February 5, 2019

M2S ELECTRONICS, MEMBER OF NARVI CONSORTIUM – PROUD TO TAKE PART IN THE MAJOR COMMERCIALIZATION PROJECT ORGANIZED BY PROPULSION QUÉBEC.

Jean D. Binant eMBA, Market Development Executive Director at M2S Electronics, will preside with Mr. Patrick Lauzière, Vice-President – Technology & Development at Orange Traffic this major commercialization project organized by Propulsion Quebec, a cluster for electric and smart transportation.

The Working Group on Commercialization's overall goal is to help accelerate commercialization of products and services from Quebec companies in the electric and smart transportation sector.

Information

info@narviconsortium.com
narviconsortium.com

About Narvi, North America and Europe

Narvi is a marketing consortium composed of international partners in order to address emerging needs in North America as part of the Electric & Smart Transportation, Rail Transportation, Energy as well as the Smart City/HVAC and Medical.

Narvi is a world leader in the industrialization of integrated electronic and electromechanical systems for the industries previously named.

About M2S Electronics, Quebec city, Quebec, Canada

Our company, founded in 1981, based in Quebec City, is a world leader in the design and assembly of integrated electronic systems. Our savoir faire allows us to offer services based on two important words to global players : Partnership and Value-added.